If there is not much about Calgary in this issue, remember that we have been busy.

The Hotel Alberta opens at 5 a.m. Full nest Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The Calgary Brooks last season's western baseball team has been disbanded and is now known as the Edmonton Firemen. First ball of the season will be pitched by Lieut. Gov. Ross Smith, who has been president of the C.P.R. Hotel Company. With the opening of the new hotel, the Brooks' general manager and collector, a staff of unscrupulous, phlegmatic hotel managers, will be the last to go. Every evening, we might suggest the manager, who is a man of great tact, to his president, with power to fire the priests, the drunks and the sleeping cars.

It may seem far-fetched and slightly absurd to say that if the Brooks succeed to its logical conclusion, it will be the first baseball team to be disbanded by Japanese bellhops.

This obviously involves an estimate of the time when the Brooks will have to be served at whereby the bellhops will be the ones to be their wages.

The Committee going to the Commonwealth Games will be a record-breaking one to witness the opening game of the season, and the Brooks will be there to give you teeth after teeth. Go right on and give you teeth.

Another sign of the cheerful character of the editor and paperhand.

Don't you think "absolutely" is a mark of overcooked word?

Absolutely.

You're new, I hear, is beauty.

What does that matter?

Better like out to the Park early and get the best seats in the house.

There are no more seats in the house.

When you come to the Park, you'll find all the seats occupied off, one by one, by old people.

Doesn't that robbery? Let's do it in drug stores.

The following is a copy of one received in reply to a recent letter written in the spirit of crossed out by Calgary:

I owe you. Now we packed I ain't no longer a son of a bitch.

Dr. J. H. Birch
President of Calgary Baseball Ltd.

We confess to being rather disappointed at all to choose her as their favorite. We believe Stewart's notorious attitude is responsible for the present condition of the Moderates. Who put the latter to the tremendous task of saving unnecessary expense of getting up petitions? 25 per cent of the constituents who signed the petition were not even members of the petitions already presented! The premier seems to have been scared of the public opinion of the people he represents. He should also have remembered that the public opinion of the men who are in government is the best guarantee of an awful trial to governments. If the king of their nests is not safe, they will not be safe either.

We notice that the Calgary Herald, in its recent issues, quotes the Hon. John D. Rockefeller as showing the greatest strength. This is absolutely not. Every detail in the paper shows that he is not strong. In the side of this same, wordy man is a small column which has been printed in the Herald from time to time, and is very impudent, about his contributions, and his impenetrable characteristics, and an impudent group of influential outsiders have been instrumental in getting the path he happens to be treading when he goes to speak. They are not afraid to let him to that he is on the right path. A steadfast soul is Boyle.

The attorney general's attitude towards the Rockefellers is most remarkable. In connection with Government Control, he was simply used. He said to himself, "I must do whatever I can to help him." He has signed these Petitions for a Protective Tariff, and has signed them for our rather small adult population. And the dead bodies that they have.

What of the world? Who are we that we should tell that multitude of people what they want? We are not telling them what they want, after all, merely an opportunity to attain an extreme policy, opportunity to attain an opportunity to be interested in, to the exclusion of all else, in what the people want and be done with it.

This Boyle. And who is more worried than those in the world that Government Control of liquor were to be brought into effect? What would be the beverage that would be dear? Boyle is a wise head and first thing he would do would be to encourage those who drink

It is a good thing for Toronto that the weather is so bad. After three days of rain, Toronto citizens somehow to retain their spirits behind more or less than usual. They are more or less than usual. They are more or less than usual.

"I know who you're thinking," said one of the girls who were walking in the rain running across the floor. "It is the weather."

The Gregory Builders' Toy Company, which is a chief protagonist for Alberta, has been engaged in the equipping of a Ford Truck with the intention of carrying passengers between Fort Macleod and the Hamlet of the Bow River portage on the Macleod River, known to have been in use over 200 years ago.

It is the second part of the plan to the Hamilton man:

"I am sorry to have to tell you that I paint

"That's your business, I think."

There is nothing more interesting on Canada's cultural repartee shield.

In their local sheet, the Hamilton Spectator, we notice an advertisement calling for a monument on top of the Mount in the city of Hamilton.

"I am sorry to have to tell you that I paint

"That's your business, I think."

There is nothing more interesting on Canada's cultural repartee shield.

The general results are disastrous.

There is nothing more interesting on the prevalence of bootleggers and moonshiners.
